Teaching Guitar, Electric Guitar, & Ukulele
at Rockwall School of Music for the past 5 Years

Trey's Background:

Growing up, Trey was involved in choir & musicals. He started playing trombone in middle school and still tries to play when he can. He earned his Bachelor of Arts at Howard Payne University as a Brass major with a minor in Piano & Biblical Studies. While in college, he performed in several musicals where he held the lead role. He has been playing guitar for about 35 years, mostly for churches and other Christian minitries. He also spent 8 years as a band director, has directed several choirs over the years, and has been a Music & Worship pastor for over 30 years. This year, he has decided to sweep off the cobwebs of his trombone and play with the Thanksgiving Trombones in Rowlett. He would love for his students to go check it out!
